Date : 22/11/2023

Time : 10 AM

Venue : Metropolitan H.S.S. Puthencavu

As a part of extension activity a science exhibition was conducted in association with Metropolitan H.S.S. Puthencavu. The expo was conducted on 22nd November, 2023. The programme was co-ordinated by Dr. Kiran Joseph, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology. The Department of Zoology introduced a stall there which includes a display of various museum specimens, from the college museum itself. Several models of rare species were included. The museum specimens were arranged in the order of progressing phyla. Each phylum consists of two specimens. Models of heart, brain, heart, skin and models of fishing materials like fishing boat(mini), trolling net, fishing hooks were there. Stuffed models like Manis crassicaudata, Varanus, Lutra lutra, etc. were also displayed.
